

86 Vionta 2007 Albariño (Rías Baixas); $18. From the Freixenet group of wineries, Vionta is clean but more neutral than we'd like to see. You won't be offended by the wine's green apple and lemon flavors, which are wet, fresh and zesty. But you might like a touch more refinement and dimension. A good wine, but a basic one. Imported by Freixenet USA.
